

WOMEN'S LEAGUE PRESIDENTS

January/February 2012

December is always a busy month due to shopping and Hanukkah parties but that didn't stop Women's League. Julie Scherzer chaired a successful Z'havah event at Bath Junkie in Westfield, Bernice Davis was busy recruiting volunteers to gift wrap items at Barnes & Noble, and Lisa Glass and Esther Avnet organized the Jewelry and Joe program.

Our second annual Spaghetti Dinner and "Jewgo" will be held the week before Super Bowl Sunday. This is a fun event for everyone ages 2 to 102. If you attended last year you already know that a great time was had by all. The food will be plentiful, the company pleasant and the competition will be exciting. We're looking forward to another great event! You must RSVP in order to attend. Check the flyer for more information.

Our winter brunch meeting is scheduled for Sunday, February 12. Come meet Phyllis Oppenheimer from the NJ Department of Travel and Tourism who will share with us "state secrets." She'll tell us all about great places to visit and things to do in NJ.

For those of you who need a relaxing evening out, Julie Scherzer is working on setting up another restorative evening...check facebook and e-mail for updates.

This year our Women's League Shabbat will be held on Friday night, March 23. If you would like to participate in this beautiful service, led by our Temple women, please contact Jackie Wasserman at JMKMW@comcast.net or 973-467-7524. Barbara Eglow and Sally Zuckerman are organizing a fabulous dinner that evening so please join us before services for a total Shabbat experience. For more information about the dinner you can contact Barbara Eglow at aeglow33@verizon.net or 908-687-0106 or Sally Zuckerman at msz3840@yahoo.com or 908-687-3375. Further information will be sent out shortly.

It's not too late to order your Mah Jongg card, so see the information in this Bulletin and rush your orders in no later than January 13 to Julie Kawut Sagalow.
